

MRS. FARNSWORTH WILL TALK ON THE SCHOOLS

Mrs. R. S. Farnsworth will address the meeting of the Sunday Night club tomorrow evening. The subject of the address will be "English in the Secondary Schools." Mrs. Farnsworth is eminently qualified to present this subject, and it is a timely one as it will deal with some of the criticisms of present-day methods in the high schools.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will be held in the Guild hall of the Church of the Good Shepherd at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. T. B. Beattie of the state board of health will be the speaker March 22.

HOME INDUSTRY IS GIVEN A BOOST

An enthusiastic meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the Home Industry association, in the rooms of the Ogden Retail Merchants' association in the Lewis block.

The meeting was not very largely attended but the addresses were of much interest to those who were present. The speakers were Mrs. Olive Haven, president of the Utah Home Industry association; Fred G. Taylor, secretary of the Amalgamated Sugar company; S. S. Jensen, secretary of the Ogden Packing and Provision company; J. S. Carver and Mrs. Leah Cunningham, president of the Ogden Ladies Home Industry association.

Mrs. Cunningham was the first speaker and in her talk she said that the purpose of the association was to

CALIFORNIA ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED IN SUNDAY SERMON

The story of the long struggle of the common people as laymen and unordained workers, to secure a place and opportunity in religious work, together with the story of the opposition women have had to overcome to secure a recognized place for their ministries in the church, is one of the fascinating portions of religious history. It is instructive too in that it reveals the truth that the people want to do religious work and will do it, even against tremendous opposition. This movement of the people for a place in religious work and the opposition of the priestly class is the theme Sunday night in the First Presbyterian church.

The California army of the unemployed as an age-long phenomena, will be discussed.

The musical numbers will be: Prelude, Miss Louise Pierce. Tenor solo, Mr. Johnson. Instrumental sextette "Simple Confession." Duet, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," Mrs. Stevens, Mr. Johnson. Cello solo, "Swan Song," Mr. Pierson. Solo, "There Is a Green Hill Far Away," Mrs. Stevens. Cornet solo, Selection from the Trumpeter, Mr. Livingston.

Have you witnessed the Esanay feature "Chains of Bondage." A gripping drama that holds you from the start to the finish, featuring Irene Warfield. Don't miss this, it's great—Oracle Theater today and Sunday evening for the last time.

Society

ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Next Tuesday, March 17, St. Patrick's day the ladies of St. Joseph's Sewing society will hold their annual sale in the church parlors. Beginning at 1:30 p. m., delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake will be served and from 5 o'clock until everyone has been served an oyster supper has been planned.

The affair will be delightful in every feature and quite a crowd is anticipated.

ST. JOSEPH'S SEWING CLUB

Mrs. Condo will act as hostess to the ladies of St. Joseph's Sewing society next Thursday, March 19, in the church parlors.

MACDOWELL EVENING

Friday evening at the Studio of Miss Ellen Thomas her pupils met in their monthly composers' class taking up the life and music of Ed. A. MacDowell who is not only America's greatest composer, but is, as our musical critic Henderson says, on a level with the musicians owned by the world.

A very instructive and pleasant evening was had in following MacDowell through his studying and composing, also in hearing some of his compositions.

ACORN DANCING PARTY

In the Weber academy auditorium last evening about one hundred couples were present at the Acorn dancing party, one of the nicely planned affairs of the week.

A sixteen piece orchestra furnished music for a program of twenty dances.

The decorative scheme was carried out in acorns and shamrocks. From corners of the balcony where the orchestra was stationed large imitation acorns were effectively hung, while streamers of miniature acorns and shamrocks were strung along the sides and south end of the hall. A pretty feature was the lattice work punch booth in form of a shamrock. Small acorns were pinned on the table cloth and fruit punch was nicely served.

Upon entering the hall each young lady was given a shamrock and a green hat was presented each gentleman.

Dancing was enjoyed until 12 o'clock.

KENSINGTON HELD

In the parlors of the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon the monthly Kensington given by the Missionary society was held, with Mesdames Roberts, Felitz, Horn, Wallace Blackington and J. E. Carver as hostesses.

Mesdames Scribner and Gibson had charge of the program.

ST. PATRICK DAY SOCIAL

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist-Episcopal church will hold a St. Patrick's social in the parlors of the church. Quite a delightful time is anticipated.

LADIES LITERARY SOCIETY.

Wednesday, March 18, the Ladies Literary society will meet with Mrs. Joseph Scowcroft, 533 Twenty-sixth street. A musicale will be the main feature of the afternoon's entertainment.

FOR MRS. WALTER STEPHENS

A pleasant surprise and birthday party was given last evening in honor of Mrs. Walter Stephens, at her home on Thirty-second street.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in red and green, with spring flowers prettily arranged. After games and music a dainty luncheon was served. The following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scowcroft, Mr. and Mrs. D. Leo Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schreves, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Metz, Mr. and Mrs. David Mouch, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Earl West, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wymmer, Mr. and Mrs. William Ure, Mrs.

Anna Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scowcroft, Mr. Roy Clark and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Madison.

AT THE THIRD WARD

Tuesday, St. Patrick's day, at 2 p. m., begins an afternoon and evening of pleasure in the Third ward amusement hall. Under the auspices of the Ward Relief society ladies a program of music and recitation will start at 2 o'clock followed by service of delicious refreshments. In the evening a dancing party has been planned to which members of the ward and their friends have been invited. An orchestra has been engaged to furnish good dance music.

MRS. CARL RASMUSSEN HOSTESS

Looking backward, one of the pretty affairs of the month was given by Mrs. Carl Rasmussen last Saturday evening, when she entertained the ladies of the Social Twelve club and their husbands at her home on Madison avenue. Five Hundred was the diversion and prizes were won by Mrs. Carl Allison and Mr. Curtis Allison. Daintily prepared refreshments were nicely served by the hostess.

PRESTON VISITORS

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Canfield are in Ogden for a few days, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flygare.

FOR MISS COBURN

Mrs. Lewis J. Read and Mrs. Preston Badger entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Read, 1124 Washington avenue, at a parcel shower, in honor of Miss Abbie Coburn, a March bride-to-be.

Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when a very dainty luncheon was served.

The invited guests were: Mesdames W. S. Read, S. H. Rushton, Edwin Dix, Albert E. Read, Jack Simpson, Carl Blakeley, Misses Abbie Coburn, Reta Cross, Myrtle Knudson, Ellen Thomas, Marion Read, Mary Read, Emily Aland, Irma Doxey, Edith Read, Melba Read, Dot Williams, Mabel Williams, Lottie Burton, Ruth Bailey, Alice Dix and Master Grant Read.

BASEBALL MEN MUCH AGITATED

Six Star Players of National League Offered More Money by Federals.

Chicago, Ill., March 14.—Reports from Tampa, Fla., at least six members of the Chicago National league club would listen to offers from the Federal league, should the baseball war talk develop into a contract-ignoring contest today agitated the followers of baseball.

With much detail though with a careful elimination of names of players said to be involved, dispatches from the Cubs' training camp related that six star players had been approached with offers from the Federals and that they had listened to the envoys and had freely declared that if given more money they would leave the National league.

STANDARD OIL TO MAKE DEMAND

Will Ask Germany to Compensate Company for Loss of Business and Investments.

Berlin, March 14.—The decision of the United States government not to protest in favor of the Standard Oil company against the German oil monopoly bill conforms with the expectations of the German government, it was announced today.

A representative of the government informed the committee in charge of the bill in the imperial parliament that American retaliatory measures might be a deterrent factor against the legislation, but asserted he was confident this would not occur.

It is generally understood here that the Standard Oil company is not asking the American government to protest against the German oil monopoly. The company, however, wishes the American government to support its demand that the German monopoly bill be amended in order to compensate the company for its loss of business and its investments in Germany.
